TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The fees for all courses can be found in the registration form and include the following:

- Tuition for 1, 1½ or 2 days.
- Course handouts
- Lunch
- Accommodation (if included)

Students are asked to note that for those courses offered on a residential basis, no discount or refund is available if the accommodation is not used. Where accommodation is not included, this can be booked separately but is subject to availability at the Conference Centre.

For course P6 which finishes on Saturday at midday, no lunch is provided on that day unless the student is attending a further course commencing the same afternoon.

All courses will be provided subject to sufficient demand, with the number of participants for each course being strictly limited. In the event of any course being cancelled as much notice as possible will be provided. Every effort will be made to adhere to the programme but the Institute of Trade Mark Attorneys and The Chartered Institute of Patent Attorneys reserve the right to make alternations without notice. Applications will be accepted in the order in which they are received. As a result, completed registration forms together with payment should be with the Institute as early as possible.

REGISTRATION FEES ARE NOT REFUNDABLE
